

Royalty Unveiled: Women Trailblazers in Church of God in Christ International Missions 1920 -1970

By Glenda Williams Goodson

HCM Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 350 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.8in. Royalty Unveiled: Women Trailblazers in Church of God in Christ International Missions 1920 -1970 is the first book of its kind to explore the work of international missionaries in the Church of God in Christ, the largest Pentecostal organization in America with churches in more than sixty countries. Its exponential growth in emerging countries can be traced to the work of brave women who left the United States beginning in the 1920s to board ships to Africa, Haiti, the Phillipines and around the world taking the message of Pentecost. Royalty Unveiled begins with an overview of American missions in the western United States and moves into Black participation in foreign missions and subsequently Pentecostal missions. Using personal interviews with women and men now in their 80s and 90s who recall their service for Christ provide details about their work in raw fields. The children, grandchildren, and caretakers weigh in along with former students, some who recall entering kindergarten at the age of 15. Mattie McCaulley journeyed to Trinidad and was the COGICs first international missionary. Elizabeth White arrived in Africa in the 1920s and initially affiliated...

READ ONLINE
[4.01 MB]

Reviews

This book may be really worth a read through, and far better than other. it was actually writtern extremely completely and valuable. I am just very easily will get a satisfaction of looking at a published ebook.

-- Lillie Toy

It is easy in read through easier to fully grasp. it had been writtern very completely and useful. I am pleased to let you know that here is the greatest book we have read during my personal life and could be he very best book for possibly.

-- Miss Marge Jerde