Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Memoirs of the Kings of Great Britain of the House of Brunswic-Lunenburg, Vol. 1 At the aera Revolution, the grand fabric of liberty, which it had been the labour of ages to erect in this island, was at length completed; and in one of the principal nations of the earth, a system of Government was by general assent established, which had for its basis the unalienable rights of man, and prosessing as its grand end and object, the happiness of the people. The design of the following Memoirs is to mow, by an impartial delineation of the interesting events of the succeeding reigns, how far this end has been kept in view, how far it has been deviated from, and in what respects the general system of freedom is Hill susceptible of enlargement and security. In consequence of the happy emancipation of these realms, by the expulsion of a wretched and merciless bigot, we were necessarily involved in a war with France, then in the zenith of prosperity, and governed by a monarch of the most aspiring ambition, supported by a degree of power truly formidable.
